

Nashville's Union Station Hotel

Fact Sheet

The Basics

Union Station, A Wyndham Historic Hotel, is a boutique hotel that is the modern incarnation of Nashville's iconic railroad station. The impressive Kentucky limestone structure, built in the Romanesque style of architect H.H. Richardson by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, opened on October 9, 1900. After passenger rail traffic declined, it took on new life in 1986 as a hotel. It is a member of Historic Hotels of America.
