The Union Station Nashville Yards Announces New General Manager

Schack von Rumohr brings experience leading luxury hotels in the U.S. and internationally

NASHVILLE, TN – The Union Station Nashville Yards, part of Autograph Collection Hotels, Marriott International’s collection of independent hotels hand-selected for their inherent craft and distinct perspectives on design and hospitality, today announced Schack von Rumohr as its new General Manager.

Schack brings more than four decades of high-end hospitality experience, holding leadership roles at award-winning luxury properties in top destinations including Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Hawaii, among others.

“It is an honor to be granted the opportunity to join such a talented team at one of the country’s most celebrated hotels, particularly at a time when the property is being so thoughtfully enhanced through meticulous restoration and a wealth of new amenities,” said Schack. “From the moment guests enter our stunning lobby, they’re transported back in time to a truly magical era of Nashville’s history. For both travelers who want to enjoy a luxury experience and locals looking for a new mainstay for delicious dining options and live music, The Union Station Nashville Yards is reasserting its reputation as a top destination in Music City.”

Most recently, Schack served as the General Manager of the Stateview Hotel in Raleigh, North Carolina (also a Marriott Autograph Collection hotel), where he oversaw hospitality operations, an upscale restaurant and bar, and 10,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor meeting space. Previously, Schack was Interim General Manager at the Las Alcobas Resort & Spa in St. Helena, California; Director of Operations at the Streamsong Resort Golf & Spa in Bowling Green, Florida; Director of Operations at the Sheraton Kona Resort & Spa in Keauhou Bay, Hawaii; and Director of Operations, responsible for the opening of the W Fort Lauderdale in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Originally from Bonn, Germany, Schack studied hospitality and culinary management in Villingen-Schwenningen, Germany. He received the Spirit of Excellence Award from Williams Hospitality University and was part of the executive team responsible for winning the AAA Five-Diamond Award at the Las Casitas Hotel at the El Conquistador Resort & Spa in Fajardo, Puerto Rico.

Schack will now lead the operations of The Union Station Nashville Yard's 125 rooms and suites, as well as the hotel's more than 11,000 square feet of meeting and event space. Schack will also oversee two food and beverage outlets: ERGO, a recently renovated bar in the hotel's 120-year-old lobby, and Stationairy, a new restaurant concept located at the former entrance to the hotel on Broadway that is slated to open later this year.

Built in 1900, Union Station originally served as Nashville's central train terminal for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. The terminal closed in 1979 and the building was reopened as a hotel in 1986, later becoming a member of the Historic Hotels of America. Today, The Union Station Nashville Yards is best known for its stunning Richardsonian-Romanesque architecture, sweeping four-story lobby, and original stained-glass windows.
